

Tell Me a Story

This picture is a mystery. It comes from Chris Baer who is a teacher at the highschool. He has lots of mystery photos in old shoe boxes. He inherited them from his dad and grandfather.

We do know one thing – these are kids from West Tisbury.

Storytelling Steps

1. Study the picture

– observe as many details as you can.

2. Characters – what do you like about the people in the picture? Is there something special about them? Are they friends? Family? Strangers?

3. Where does the story take place? Have you ever been somewhere like this?

4. What's the problem? What are they doing? Why?

5. Can they resolve the problem?

Beginning Middle End

Can you answer all the questions above and share your answers using Beginning Middle and End? Voilá! You have a story!

Please share your story with us. aducharme@mvmuseum.org A video of you telling the story would be great!
